Profile of The Week

This column attempts to acquaint Campbell residents with the background of most of its leading citizens, to make for a greater interest in the activities of the Campbell area.

Pictures from the files of the Campbell Press will be drawn, by lot, for the first of the articles. When this supply is exhausted, pictures of newer residents will be taken, to run in conjunction with stories.

J. M. DAHL

City Councilman Joseph M. Dahl came to Campbell in 1937, entering the real estate business in association with the late B. O. Curry.

A modest financial success in the real estate business and other special selling enterprises in Los Angeles was wiped out in the market crash of 1929. Greener fields appeared in northern California where he entered the selling field with bakery houses in the area.

In Campbell, Dahl purchased the old Cramer property on Central and the present Harrison avenues which he subdivided, and on which he constructed new homes. During the next several years, he subdivided a total of seven properties with a total of over 300 lots.

Councilman Dahl has been a member of the San Jose Real Estate Board since 1938. He was president of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce in 1939 and again in 1949. He has been on several committees and the official board of the Campbell Methodist Church. He is a member of the Odd Fellows lodge in Campbell, Orchard City Grange, and the Campbell Kiwanis Club. As a member of Campbell city council, he heads the committee on streets and highways.

Member of La Rinconada Country Club, Dahl finds occasional opportunities to engage in his favorite sport.. Motor trips to statewide vacation spots in another of Dahl's leisure time pursuits.

The foregoing word picture of councilman Dahl as city official, successful business man, social leader, represents him as he is today. But it was not always so.

Born on a farm in the central part of Iowa, Dahl found himself in the midst of a large family in which he said, returns were never too abundant.

His early school days were experienced in a one-room building for all grades. Completion of high school gave way to assume a greater part of work on the farm.

Following six months in a commercial college Dahl obtained work in a large wholesale grocery office, which, he said, hastened a decision to enter college. He finished high school at Drake University, and entered University of California. Dahl still remembers the 27-day long trip from Iowa to California in a Haynes touring car. He worked his way through three and one half years at the University of California cleaning fraternity houses, waiting on tables and washing dishes, and by holding down a part time job in an office in San Francisco.

Dahl said he left college when offered a job with a new firm manufacturing automobile parts. When the company opened a new office in Los Angeles he was transferred. When the firm folded, the following year, Dahl entered the real estate business in Los Angeles, but lost everything in the market crash.

Dahl married the former Eva Mitchell in 1942 and with his wife, now lives in their new home at 245 Hrrison avenue.

FIRST READING OF MASTER ZONE ORDINANCE SET FOR MONDAY

By accepting the master zoning map and ordinance as submitted by the planning commission Monday night, the city denied without prejudice applications for two proposed shopping centers in the city, and for multiple dwelling units south of C-2 zoning on Winchester road. New ordinance is scheduled to go into effect in approximately six weeks following introduction and first reading at the council meeting Monday.

The council felt, however, that Mayfair Packing Company application for a shopping center on the San Jose-Los Gatos road at Hamilton and the Rice application for a center on Winchester and Latimer, and application of William C. Henley for multiple dwelling units on Winchester avenue, would receive favorable action under the new ordinance when adopted.

This was indicated in Mayor Richard Morton's statement that there is need for further commercial zoning than provided in the submitted plan. The need for more business zoning was pointed up by numerous letters, personal appearances and other action by interested persons at council meetings during the year.

The mayor said, in effect, that to incorporate all zoning requests received into the new ordinance would require a completely new draft and further delay.

In line with the recognized need for further study of the business zoning problem, the mayor said the planning commission is beginning a study of the commercial needs of the entire city, to substantiate future recommendations to the city council.

Applications presently before the council for business zoning were denied "without prejudice" indicating probable favorable action if resubmitted with adequate documentation, under the new ordinance. These must first be submitted to the planning commission.

Two new use permit applications were submitted Monday night. Deferred until checked with provisions of the new ordinance, was an application from R. McGowan, and George Schumaker to conduct a taxi business in the city under the name of "Campbell Cab Company."

Public hearing on the application of Winifred Kwasigroch, to conduct a telephone answering service in her home at 156 Carlyn avenue was set for November 16.

City clerk was directed to issue a business license to Picture Realty upon the findings of councilman Joseph M. Dahl, that the firm license has been in continuous effect since July, 1952. The real estate firm, located on the southwest corner of San Jose-Los Gatos road and Hamilton, will operate under the "non-conforming" use clause of the interim zoning ordinance, even though located in an R-1 area.

The sum of $600 was transferred from fines and forfeiture funds to public works department to construct a pedestrian bridge across San Tomas Aquino Creek along Rincon avenue to safeguard children attending Cherry Lane School.

Guest speakers at the Campbell kick-off dinner Tuesday, will include local physicians who will explain the need of funds for seeking the cause and control of Cancer—the nation's number one disease which annually kills 300,000 persons.

"Every home in the area will be visited by local Jaycee members in a door to door canvass, from Wednesday through Monday of next week, between the hours of 7 p. m. to 9:30 p. m.," Laney and Prindle explained, "Remember you will be called upon by your fellow citizens, who give their time for this effort against a disease that attacks one out of every four people," they said.

Laney and Prindle said any and all donations will be accepted for the drive but the chief effort of the Jaycees will be to sell "Light-A-Lawn" markers. The markers which sell for $2.98 each are luminous house markers, which the Jaycees point out make pleasing daytime markers and are easily identified at night. BOND ELECTION CALLED FOR CAMBRIAN PARK HIGH SCHOOL

Electors of the Campbell Union High School District are to go to the polls on December 1st to decide a proposition of whether the district should issue and sell $2,500,000 in bonds for the building of branch high school in the Cambrian district at Union and Camden avenues. The bonds would be sold to build classrooms as needed, equip them, landscape the grounds, buy school buses and purchase an additional site. It would also keep the district bonded indebtedness at maximum limit so as to qualify for state aid.

School officials pointed out today that by 1955 the high school enrollment in Campbell will have increased from 500 to 600 more than at present and the new school is to meet that bulge. A school to take care of the immediate increased enrollment will first be built, possibly a junior high school, with additional classrooms to be added as the need becomes apparent.

The district owns the proposed site in Cambrian Park and will be able to proceed with building following approval of the issue by the electorate, and the plans by the board of school architecture at Sacramento.

There are to be twelve voting places with polls open from 7 A. M. to 8 P. M. They are:

No. 1 Luther Burbank School, 1791 West San Carlos.

Dr. Lund Speaker At High School PTA Meeting

Dr. S. E. Lund, professor of education at the University of California, was the guest speaker at the first meeting of Campbell Union High School PTA, Friday, attended by parents and teachers.

Superintendent Laurance J. Hill described the needs of the Campbell High School, aided by a series of charts. Hill spoke of an "astounding future" for the local High School.

"By actual count of present elementary pupils, we will have at least 723 freshmen entering Campbell high school in 1955, and 1289 by 1960," he said.

Pointing up the rapid expansion of the district, Hill said that the 1953 class of 583 freshman is larger than the 524 total enrollment of Campbell in 1947. Present enrollment is 1749.

A special committee was appointed by the PTA to draft a resolution favoring support of the bond issue to be voted December 1.

New high school to be built in Cambrian Park is planned for early construction. It is the first step in the expansion program, Hill explained. The new school would be built to handle only freshmen and sophomores the first year, with additional facilities to be added in successive years.

John Sebastian - Dorothy Jarnac Open L. G. Concert Fall Program

First program for the Los Gatos Concert Association will be held at the Los Gatos Union High School auditorium November 2, at 8:15 p. m., featuring John Sebastian and Dorothy Jarnac.

Happiest new combination in the concert world is the team of John Sebastian harmonica virtuoso, and Dorothy Jarnac, dance humorist. The debonair musician and the dancing star of many Broadway hits now share a sprightly program that is being received with fine enthusiasm.

JOHN SEBASTIAN and DOROTHY JARNAC

John Sebastian, just back from new European successes, has long since established the harmonica as a concert instrument of range and charm and his impact in the concert field has been extraordinary. Brilliant guest appearances with America's principal symphony orchestras and more than three hundred solo recitals have established John Sebastian as the premier harmonica virtuoso of our time.

Dorothy Jarnac became a dancing star overnight in the Broadway musical hit "Bloomer Girl". After that fortunate introduction to the entertainment scene, she introduced and popularized a dance style all her own, the narrative dance. Brooks Atkinson, dean of New York critics, has described Miss Jarnac as a dancer of "extraordinary eloquence". Miss Jarnac was born in Sacramento and had early dancing days in this her home state.

SHOPPING IN CAMPBELL

There is good news in the Press today for shoppers who like to feel that their money stays in Campbell where it will buy good merchandise at bargain prices.

Today is double stamp day, for one thing. There is a cash saving for those buying from participating stores—also there is the opportunity to win one of several appliances. Tonight the leading stores will be open until nine with special bargains. A new store, Cornet, opens in Campbell today with counters full of bargains. This is the first of the independent group stores to locate in Campbell.

Campbell needs this centralized interest for its shoppers. The merchants are telling their story in the ads today, a story well worth following. Dollars spent in Campbell come back to us. The merchandise sold here is backed by the store owner who, likely as not, is a neighbor paying local taxes and licenses, supports civic movements and who never says "no" to a group wanting help for a worthy cause that is local. His children probably attend Campbell schools and its churches and he is more concerned over the health and happiness of your children than he is of any except his own.

Tonight will be shopping night in Campbell. Let's give our own merchants an opportunity to serve us. They will sincerely appreciate your visit.

HALLOWEEN CAUTION

Seems that the festivities of Hallowe'en in our generation have become relatively tame to what they were in the cane-raising days of the early century. With all the modern energy outlets of hot rods, movies, night baketball, television and other interests, the old-time thrill of Hallowe'en deviltry has scant appeal to the new generation.

Come to think of it, though, it might be just as well to take a few precautions this Saturday night. The garden hose and outdoor furniture might well be put securely away, and of course the windows should be protected from the roving tribe. Best of all, better lay in a stock of candy, apples, cookies and such for those little neighborhood children who come hooded and masked to your door. They will know you by the way you treat them. And don't forget, you will know them too for their innocent little 'trick-or-treat' game.

WATER SUPPLY IS A SERIOUS PROBLEM

Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay is to appear on a fund-raising program in San Jose next Thursday evening, and is expected to have a message related to water conservation. This is an important topic for Santa Clara County, where the supply of fresh water is being challenged by an increasing number of users from both residential and industrial areas.

It is a subject which the board of supervisors has under consideration, and which has been passed on to a group of several counties for balanced consideration on the Reber Plan. The Western Foothills Association is keenly interested in action. The Santa Clara County Board seemed reluctant to act favorably on a $55,000 survey proposed by the Stanford Research Institute covering actual costs. It now seems in a stalemate.

What, if anything, the cabinet officer will say on this subject is a moot question at this time. We might as well face it, that unless a more secure water supply is made available soon, the potential industrial and agricultural developments of the county will be at a standstill. Water tables have already receded too far. We must now seek a new water supply from some source. Whether the Reber plan is the answer is not a problem which can be lightly dismissed.

If Douglas McKay has any thought on this subject to express at next Thursday evening's meeting, it most certainly will be well received. Nothing could be so important to us right now than some assurance from a responsible head that steps will be taken to improve the water supply in Santa Clara County.

His appearance here is political in nature, to be sure, as funds so raised at the $100 a plate dinner will go toward supporting endorsed Republican candidates next year. The Secretary of the Interior's interest in the subject of improving the water supply will substantially strengthen the party vote-getting potential in 1954.

BUCCANEERS TACKLE A JINX SQUAD AT JAMES LICK HIGH TOMORROW

There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth at Campbell High School tomorrow if the Bucs lose their scheduled grid bout with James Lick, at Lick. So far, Coach Jim Muir said, the local team has been doing fine: they beat Mountain View, their first league opponent 26-7, and last week they dropped Balboa 7-0. Their only loss to date has been to non-league Castlemont (18-6), when the squad was green and riddled with early season injuries and absences.

Since that game they have improved steadily, Muir said.

"We have only a few minor injuries and should be in good shape for the Lick Contest," Muir said yesterday.

James Lick High School, on the contrary, has been having a little hard luck. They have an 0 for 3 record. In three attempts they gathered nothing but gooseeggs. They've faced Santa Clara, Washington, and Palo Alto, and each time, returned defeated.

All signs point to a pushover for Campbell tomorrow.

"Uh, uh," Muir strenuously objected. "This is the same situation as last year." We had won three; they had won none, but look at the record to see what happened. (The final score last year in in the Buc-Lick tilt was 26-6 in favor of James Lick.) "They're a jinx outfit for the Bucs," he said, "And we consider them just as tough a team to beat as any we've faced so far or are likely to face yet."

Three games remain on the Campbell league grid schedule. Next week the Bucs tangle with Santa Clara which this week draws a bye. Then follows games with Washington and the traditional 'little big game" with Los Gatos to end the league season on Thnksgiving afternoon.

Bucs Skin Cats

The Campbell 130's football team scored a 6-0 victory over the Los Gatos 30's on the Cats' own gridiron. The Bucs scored their touchdown in the second quarter when quarterback Vernon Lunt handed the ball to right half Tony LoBue who went 45 yards for the deciding score.

Vernon Lunt quarterbacked the whole game because Eppie Gallego was out with an injury. Even though it was Lunt's first game, he played very well in blanking the Cats .

Left half, Dick Takaha intercepted a pass on Campbell's 10 yard line in the fourth quarter and ran it back to the Los Gatos 40 yard line to get the Bucs out of a lot of trouble.

The Buc's will take on James Lick today on Lick's own field.

Our thirties haven't been getting the support they should from the Student Body, so in the coming games let's get behind them and give them all we have by way of support.

New High School In Cambrian Park Favored By PTA

More than 200 proud parents greeted their children's teachers on October 7, as the Cambrian Home and School Club began its new year with the annual Teacher's Reception.

With lovely autumn colors and flowers for background, Mrs. Monte Estabrook brought the meeting to order by reading a special appropriate poem, and then introduced all the members of the faculty, staff, and board of trustees.

Steven Jensen, a former Cambrian student presented two piano numbers, "Polynaisse" by Chopin, and "Rhapsody in Blue" by George Gershwin. Dianne Williams, who was raised in Hawaii gave several authentic dances, followed by western numbers by Willis Dahl.

Delos M. Bagby, principal of Cambrian School welcomed the teachers and staff. He outlined the proposed construction of Cambrian School Number Two, and the new Campbell High School in Cambrian Park.

He urged all present to register and vote on both school bond elections.

Monte Estabrook acquainted the audience with the coming magic and variety show to feature the "Great Norma", which is to be held at the Campbell High School Auditorium, November 14. The show is being sponsored by the Cambrian Men's Club and classrooms are competing for prizes in ticket sales.

Following the meeting, a social hour gave additional opportunity for parents and teachers to become acquainted.

Next home and school club meeting will be held Wednesday, November 4, in the Cambrian School cafeteria. This will be a special memorial program in honor of William Hennessey, Cambrian teacher who was killed last year.

CAMPBELL J.V.'s BATTLE TO 7-7 TIE

Campbell J. V.'s fought a hard battle against James Lick on Campbell's gridiron. Early in the first quarter, Russ Cahill went around right end for a gain of 32 yards and a touchdown. Rex Kendell kicked the conversion for the extra point. For the second and third quarter, the two teams battled to and fro, both defending their goal valiently. In the last half of the fourth quarter the pay off came for James Lick as they drove across for the touch down and the conversion. Mike Profit was injured in the last quarter.

One thing every one was proud of, was the fact that there was such a good turn out. There were at least 20 students at this game. Students should try to support all their teams. In fact there were more James Lick rooters than campbell rooters.

MAILING DEADLINE FOR OVERSEAS SET

Deadline for mailing Christmas packages to men overseas will be November 15 Ira Grim, postmaster, announced today.

Due to the anticipated increase in the volume of mails over previous years, there is no assurance that parcel post mailed from the United States after November 15 will be delivered before the holiday, the announcement said.

Parcels to more remote areas should be mailed by November 1.

As a result of the reduced capabilities of military airlift, air parcel post to some areas, particularly the Far East, may be diverted at ports of embarkation to surface transportation, the Navy said.

SARATOGA LIONS CLUB GIVES $100 TOWARD SURVEY

A $100 contribution toward a disinterested organization from the outside, making a survey on the merits of incorporation as a municipality, was made last week by the Lions Club in Saratoga. It was the first substantial donation made to the five man survey committee which is headed by Paul Basham.

The Survey Committee was organized recently following preliminary study by a committee made up of representatives from the Saratoga Lions, Chamber of Commerce, and Merchants' Association on the prospects of incorporation.

The Survey Committee is presently contacting organizations which conduct such surveys, as the Coro Foundation of San Francisco and University graduate departments as to the exact cost for such work. The committee will meet again next Thursday evening.

When we came West, we found out...

Gas and electricity are cheap in California

How P. G. & E. low rates save the Billetts money

The Billetts' P. G. and E. bill for a recent month was $15.05

In their former home the same amount of gas and electricity would cost $32.20

"Living in California is a wonderful change for us," says Mrs. Billett, who moved West with her husband and children in 1951. "We enjoy the extra room . . . all the trees and flowers . . . the delightful informality. And because gas and electricity cost so little here—far less than where we used to live—we now enjoy the convenience of several extra household appliances."

Yes...gas and electricity are a real bargain in California. P. G. and E.'s combined rates are actually lower now than in 1938. So let low-cost gas and electricity do more of your work . . . give you added leisure.

The FARMERS CORNER

by Allen F. Mather
Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

HOPE COMMITTEE MEETINGS

On November 7 in Santa Rosa, Congressman Clifford Hope will convene a meeting of his House Committee on Agriculture for the purpose of hearing what California farmers think about future national farm policy. On November 12 a similar meeting will be held in Whittier. Congressman Hope and his Committee have already toured most of the rest of the country.

Press reports indicate that the New England farmers showed no enthusiasm for a farm program which would embrace high-level supports as the ultimate solution to the many problems facing agriculture today. Through the cotton South and the corn-hog economy of the Midwest, the picture was substantially different. The Committee apparently found that the coalition of congressional forces from the wheat, the corn, and the cotton areas faithfully represent their constituents when they continue demanding at least 90 percent of parity.

VOX POP

California farmers are soon to tell this powerful and important Committee what they think. The Committee is particularly anxious to learn whether farmers think there is any way to support storable commodities at 90 percent of the parity price without inviting excessive production, acreage allotments, and marketing quotas. Do the farmers favor rigid supports of 90 percent or a flexible price support program which would require fewer controls over farm operations?

What about the two-price system which has been talked about primarily for wheat and cotton? Should perishable farm products be the object of Government attempts for additional price stabilization programs? What is the appropriate program for the dairy industry, and what do the cattlemen think about the long-range stabilization of prices for their industry?

MORE QUESTIONS

What changes can be made in foreign trade program to recapture lost export markets? What is Government's part in soil conservation activities? Should federal all-risk crop insurance be extended to additional commodities and additional areas? Do California farmers have adequate sources of credit on satisfactory terms?

The Hope Committee is clearly out to obtain ideas of grass-root farmers. Committee hearings in Santa Rosa and Whittier are expected to be well attended by those who have suggestions to make.

SURPLUS TO SHORTAGE

Congressman Hope and his committee members may conclude that our present "surplus" problems are relatively short-term. When the expanding population causes national consumption to catch up with productive capacity, it is likely there will be a scramble to keep abreast of demand.

When this happens, 100 percent of parity will be the rule rather than the exception. And this 100 percent will be obtained through the market place. Agriculture will be at its peak of prosperity.

Agricultural adjustment is not not synonymous with agricultural depression. Since farm policy has become a political issue, this is sometimes overlooked.

BIG FUTURE FOR FIBREGLAS PLANT AT SANTA CLARA

That the sales volume for Owens-Corning Fibreglas Corporation will surpass by about twenty percent the thirteen million dollar record of 1952 at the Santa Clara plant, was the prediction made today by Harold Boeschenstein, president of the firm.

Boeschenstein, heading a firm which has pioneered the fiber glass field and skyrocketed to the top of its field, came here from his Toledo, Ohio, headquarters to present a National Mineral Wool Association safety award giving the Santa Clara plant national honors for the period from June of 1952 to June, 1953.

During that period the plant here had an accident ratio of 2.97 accidents for each 1,000,000 manhours worked. In 1952, the ratio was 11.8, in 1951 it was 44.3, and the first year the plant was established here, in 1949-50, the ration was 31.4.

"Safety is a by-product of good housekeeping," he declared. "The Santa Clara plant has maintained a very high degree of practical attention to safety problems. Our employees take the greatest pride in finding hazards and eliminating them. This results in better working conditions—and is of dollars and cents value to this corporation," he added.

Turning to economics, Boeschenstein declared that the Pacific Coast has long been a potential growth area. "For 30 years I'v watched the West grow, and believe it is only starting to prove out to its growth possibilities."

NEW TOMATO MAKES HARVESTING EASIER

A new kind of tomato, tailored to the harvester's needs, has been developed by plant breeder Gordie C. Hanna at the Davis campus of the University of California. The new type separates readily from the vine and makes harvesting easier.

KAISER SEEKING INDUSTRIAL SITE IN SANTA CLARA

An offer of $3250 per acre has been made by Kaiser Community Homes, Inc. for city owned industrial properties in Santa Clara. The land is west of de la Cruz Boulevard. The firm offered $65,000 for 20 acres of industrial property south of Martin avenue and proposed an option on the remainder of the acreage at $3250 per acre.

An agreement just reached between the city council and a real estate firm, Howe and Neilson designated the firm as agent of the Santa Clara owned land.

This virtually rejects the Kaiser offer to buy 20 acres at $3250 per acre and a rejection of the chamber of commerce proposal that the 70 acres be sold to a private industrial developer.

The Santa Clara Council is studying the proposal. The Chamber of Commerce is in favor of the plan, contending that one industrial developer taking all of the acreage would be a means for getting taxable development there as soon as possible. This is the reverse of the way the council had tentatively agreed on.

Spotlights On Deer Draw Heavy Fines

It's good to shed light on most subjects—but not on deer after dark.

Four hunters found this out the painful, expensive way, when they were arrested in Mendocino County by California Department of Fish and Game wardens during the recent hunting season. Their fines totaled $3250.

Acting on complaints of ranchers west of Willits, the wardens quietly followed three of the spotlighters around for most of an evening. They used a sealed beam spotlight which they heaved into the brush when the wardens swooped down. The wardens retrieved it by hauling on the extension cord connecting it to the hunter's car battery.

The United States produced 55.7 per cent of the oil in the free world in 1052.

Gardiner Johnson Is Chairman For Knight Committee

Governor Goodwin J. Knight today named Gardiner Johnson, San Francisco attorney and former State Assemblyman from Alameda County, as Northern California chairman of his Knight for Governor Campaign Committee.

Johnson will proceed immediately to coordinate the many phases of campaign effort in some forty-eight counties from the Tehachapi to the Oregon line. San Francisco headquarters will be established very soon.

"With the primary election only eight months away," Josnson said, "we are beginning already to enroll voters everywhere who are anxious to work to assure Governor Knight's election on June 8, 1954.

"When Goodwin Knight became Governor of California he had a record of having served as acting governor more than any other lieutenant governor. He has demonstrated his ability to work harmoniously with people. He has a proven record of success as a business executive, a lawyer, and a superior court Judge.

"Governor Knight is exceptionally well qualified to continue serving as governor in the best interest of all Californians. A very human person, he has the understanding of the problems of California. He will be able to bring about needed economy where it is necessary for efficiency in State government."

San Jose Jr. Museum To Be Ready Nov. 15

Santa Clara County's new Junior Museum will be ready to serve city and county schools and youth groups by Nov. 15, according to John Harville of San Jose State College. The lodge at Alum Rock Park will house the exhibits and groups will be able to visit the museum from the Nov. 15th date and on. Materials, which include the live and stuffed animals, may be borrowed for science study. Field trips in the museum's immediate area will be given highest priority to interested schools, according to Ruby Ferguson and Fred Ross, education committee co-chairman.

Organized groups wishing to schedule visits should write at once to the Junior Museum, Alum Rock Park, for reservation, according to Mr. Harville. After the Nov. 15 date, the museum will have a phone.

All the museum animals and birds are at Camp Campbell, where Sam Smoker, educational supervisor, is camping with youth groups.

Saturday Is Last Day For Cambrian Park Postal Bids

Two more days remain for persons interested in leasing space to the government for a branch post office in Cambrian Park which is to function through the Los Gatos post office. Those interested should contact Postal Inspector H. G. Mueller at the main post office in San Francisco or Ed Briggs, Los Gatos postmaster. The proposed branch office would be located in the vicinity of Union and Woodard avenues and have a floor area of 3200 square feet. Final date for receiving offers will be Saturday evening of this week.

ROAD ALIGNMENT MAY HINDER SARATOGA STORE CENTER PLANS

If the intersection of Saratoga avenue and Quito Road is realigned it may be possible that the proposed shopping center may have to be moved. The proposition was before the County planning Commission last Wednesday.

The shopping center has been before the board three times. E. C. Steffani, deputy county road commissioner said plans are being drawn that would channel the V-shaped intersection to make it safer but that it won't be done for two or three years.

BARGAINS GALORE AWAIT SHOPPERS AT CORNET GRAND OPENING TODAY

New Cornet 5-10-25 cent Variety Store in the Barbano building, corner of Campbell and Central avenues, holds its grand opening today. Thirty local sales girls after a busy week uncrating, sorting and pricing merchandise under the direction of manager R. B. Spawn stand ready to supply Campbell shoppers with choice items ranging from women's lingerie to household pet supplies.

Dwight Merriman, Cornet construction superintendent after directing the renovation of the Campbell avenue store, by contractor Max Haueter of Los Gatos, leaves this week to supervise other buildings of the Cornet chain now underway in various parts of California. New stores of the Cornet chain, currently being built are located at Atwater, Dunsmuir, Blyth, and Conoga Park, California.

The Campbell store and those under construction are the latest and largest in the 82-store Cornet chain extending over seven western states. Joe Cornet Sr., Belgian immigrant started the first store in 1925 with $2,000 earned as a construction worker in the Texas oil fields. Original buildings of the present multi-million dollar enterprise was a 12 by 50 foot room in Cobina, California.

A steady growth since that time has enabled the company to maintain two large warehouses in Pasadena, a modern advertising and sales promotion department.

CAMPBELL HI-LITES

by Bob Olson

Our F. H. A. has done it again
Whenever we see them, they're winning!
Already they're copping life's honors
Even with their careers just beginning.
At a fair or a big convocation
They prove to be the best in the state
Telling the whole world that Campbell's
Chapter is simply GREAT!

If we seem to fill this column so often with news about Campbell High's Future Homemakers, it must be for two reasons: (1)Their effervescent and bombastically energetic advisor, Mrs. Adele Charlson, seems to stop us, every time we're loose in the halls, to tell us all about her group's latest conquest, and (2) This coterie of girls seems to make as much news in its own way as all the Big Bill Greggs, Andrei Vishinskys, and Ezra Bensons put together.

Most recently, they sent representatives down to "conquer" the FHA State Convention at Asilomar. And conquer they did. For the fourth year straight, a Campbell High Chapter girl was selected to hold one of the state organization's executive offices. This time it was Masako Kawauchi, who will now hold the office of state secretary for the coming year.

Bea Rodriguez, one of our 1953 graduates, was the only one of fourteen applicants to be awarded her State Homemaker Degree. Virginia Bese, another Campbell alumnus, and our superintendent, Mr. Hill, were selected as two of only seven from the whole state of California, to receive state honorable memberships. And, of course, Alice Lassen, outgoing public relations chairman, presided at some of the convocation's most important business sessions.

But CUHS won a group as well as individual award, when it was selected as one of four (out of a grand total of 189!) state chapters to be given the honor of exhibiting the title, "Nineteen Fifty Two Honor Chapter."

But then Mrs. Charlson, who is enjoying her sixth year as advisor for this award-winning group sums it up better than we can (or at least she did, the last time she pinned us against a corridor wall, conversationally, of course):

"Sure, we win more than our share of honors. But that isn't what gives me my biggest reward. That comes in just sitting down to talk things over with my girls who already appreciate what a tremendous educational experience FHA is for them. They seem to know already that long after the history exams and or even chemistry experiments are forgotten, the kitchen conquests we garner here together will mean a great deal. Just think of the happy homes thes girls will be filling in a few years."

Yes, think of it. Is there anything we do here at school more important than giving girls like these a training like this?

We left Study Hall 33 at the end of seventh period the other day to find the answer to a question an interested parent asked us about after-school activities. "Does everybody go home after their last class?" he queried after seeing busload after busload pull out. "Are the school's facilities used more than just seven periods a day?" As the result of a short four o'clock walk about the campus, our answer can definitely be affirmative. Never have we seen a larger area put to better use.

In the art rooms we found twelve extremely enthusiastic decorators making the plans and preparations for the next school dance. They were whistling as they worked, in accompaniment to a record Mrs. Winston had on for them. We particularly remember the music since it was our kind of tune—not funereal at all but the kind you ride horses to.

In the library we found the librarian, Mrss Muriel Carson, helping somebody's English students pick out suitable American novels to read for their first book report. After dashing about the library helping people all day ("I'll bet I know the answers to more Constitution questions than anyone else in the country," she smiled), Miss C. still had the time and patience to "sell' a few more books. In Mr. Cline's duplicating room a crew was assembling some bulletins "to be distributed tomorrow" just as Mrs. Edna Flagg was readying "tomorrow's audio-visual program" down in Room, crowded with movie equipment and new textbooks.

On the way out to the athletic fields we passed the auditorium where Mr. Ken Wallace was putting his big cast through a final rehearsal of last weekend's Big Show (which, incidentally, was a fabulous success). And passing the boys' gym we heard the dribbling of a ball and the shouts of competing court men as Coach Bert Robinson ran his ten and twenty basketball teams through their paces preparing for their next little league encounter (few realize that basketball is a six month sport in schools now. Out on the tennis courts Mr. Gugat's netmen were enjoying Fall practice while, nearby, the swimming pool was plunged full of Mr. Scroggin's mermen.

But the afternoon's main attraction was to be found on the football field where Coach Ken Duddridge's stalwarts were winning a JV football game. And even while this contest was progressing, our now famous "clum dummy" was bearing the brunt of a workout from some of our varsity linemen. If you don't think that football is hard work, come out and practice blocking with these gorillas between the refreshment stand and the scoreboard some afternoon.

Meanwhile, on the baseball field Coach Junior Morgan's "30" footballers were going through a light workout in preparation for their game the following day against Lick's thirties.

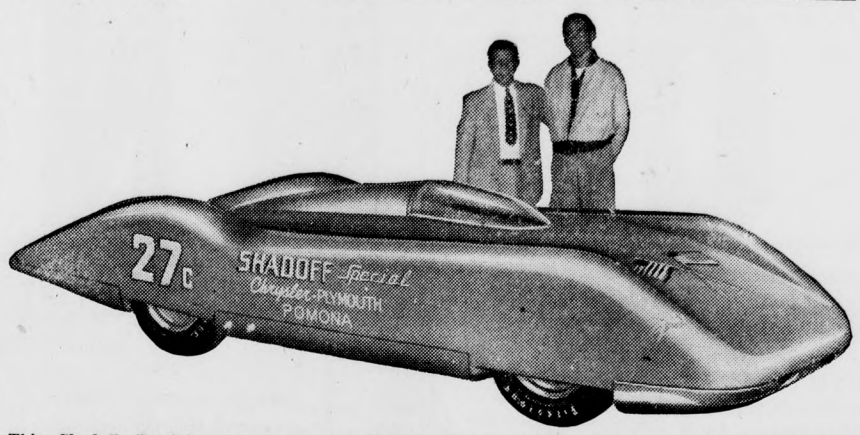
Our wanderings finally drew us over to the varsity gridmen who are as entertaining in practice as they are in playing the SCVVAL's most exciting Friday afternoon encounters (or did you miss our last two games' fourth quarters rallies, wherein we pulled out a tie against Fremont and a game from Balboa?) Campbell's "first twenty-two" were divided into two teams. The one on offensive represented our next opponent, James Lick, and was prancing through all the familiar play patterns head coach Jim Muir expected Lick to use against us there in our game tomorrow. It was surprising to learn how quickly our adept Bucs learned the different defenses to stop enemy plays. Bob Sutton acted out their quarterback's important part reminding us of the Cleveland Brown's Otto Graham.

Coach Mel Stein stood off to one side to see how his line reacted to different play patterns. "No, Carter, you're supposed to move to the right when they do that!" Big Bill Gregg looked great, lifting high booming punts, and then later plowing through the line, living up to the reputation he's gained for being the "fastest man for his size" in the whole SCVAL. Fleet-footed Bill Montero threw a sharp block into loose-jointed lineman, Olon Fossest, who is about as hard to fool as he is to knock out of the way, while Larry Sutton made one of his tricky quarterback sneaks. A moment later Sutton threw a p in-point pass to Don Davis who somehow got away from the man guarding him and was off on one of those long loping deer-like runs of his.

We didn't have time to stick around, for we were due over at the girls' gym to watch Mrs. Virginia Jennings put her dancing girls through another of their fast-stepping routines.

But in only a half hour we saw ten different groups of eager high schoolers enthusiastically participating in ten extra-curricular activities as worthwhile to their participants as almost anything most of use can hope to give them in classrooms during the day. And we're surer than ever that CUHS is making wise use inside and out of its widespread acres. Our high school means many different things to over 1800 different people; it is a place where everyone can "find himself" in some medium of endeavor.

CHRYSLER RACER SETS WORLD RECORDS



This Shadoff Special, powered by a modified Chrysler FirePower V-8 engine, recently set 12 class C speed and endurance records at Bonneville, Utah, including a new flying-mile record of 236.3 miles per hour. Six of the records are international marks. The car, sponsored by Pomona, California dealer Bill Shadoff (at left) and owned, designed and driven by Mal Hooper (right) of Los Angeles, turns up 6,000 r.p.m. with a 12.5 to 1 compression ratio. It weighs 1,800 lbs. and is 39 inches high and 56 inches wide.

CHRISTMAS SEAL DRIVE TO START NOVEMBER 16

The red Double-Barred Cross, the registered trademark of the National Tuberculosis Association, begins its 52nd year today as the international symbol of the war against tuberculosis, according to Bob Lindsey, county Christmas Seal Sale chairman.

"Whatever the design of the Christmas Seal," Mr. Linsey said, "the red Double-Barrel Cross appears on it each year, assuring those who buy Seals that their contributions will be used effectively in fighting tuberculosis."

County residents will ge a close look at the 1953 Christmas Seal on November 16, the opening day of the Seal Sale which will continue through December. The sale of Christmas Seals by mail is the chief means of financial support for the tuberculosis prevention and control program of the Santa Clara County Tuberculosis Association.

The red Double-Barred Cross appears at the right in this year's Christmas Seal design, which features the joyful face of a child singing Christmas carols.

"On Oct. 23, 1902," Bob Lindsey said, "the red Double-Barred Cross, an adaption of the historic Cross of Lorraine, was first proposed and accepted as the emblem of the modern crusade against tuberculosis. The proposal was was made during the first International Conference on Tuberculosis in Berlin, where medical and lay leaders from 20 nations, including the United States, met to join forces again TB, then the leading cause of death in most of the world."

Duck Hunters Have Good Shooting

Duck hunters who opened the season at the State's Grizzly Island waterfowl management area, near Fairfiled, took home an average of nearly five ducks apiece each day during the first week-end of hunting.

On the first shooting day, 413 hunters scored a total bag of 2,909 ducks. The unusual daily average of seven ducks apiece slipped on the second day when 415 hunters took 1,943 birds. The third day tally was 468 hunters and 1,410 birds.

The Department of Fish and Game credited the hunting success to liberalized regulations allowing later shooting, the unwariness of the ducks in the early part of the season and better "shooting sense" on the part of the hunters. Most of the hunters, it is reported, took camouflage precautions and refrained from "skyscraper" shooting.

Kiwanis Troop 28 Spends Weekend At Big Basin

Campbell Kiwanis Boy Scout Troop 28, spent the weekend in Big Basin State Park as a part of their program of camping and advancement. Fourteen scouts and three leaders left Saturday morning and set up camp in the Park. They were then taken on a hike around the central area.

Led by Tim Sullivan, who has spent considerable time in Big Basin, this proved educational, by pointing out the many varieties of trees and shrubs to be found in the park.

The Scouts worked on fire building and cooking tests and each patrol enjoyed a well-planned and well-prepared evening meal.

The Explorers under the leadership of Jerry Henley then set up an observation trail and this proved a fine method of demonstrating night observation. The troop then hiked to Sempervirens Falls and on to Slippery Rock for star observation. The return to camp was made over a well-wooded trail which tested night vision.

"Taps" was blown by bugler Jack Guio and all was quiet until it started to rain. The scouts were well protected in the tents they had erected.

Shelters were thrown up for cooking areas and breakfast was eaten in a downpour. Hiking was out for the day, so after packing and cleaning up, the troop left for home.

Those attending were: Mohawk Patrol, Roger Merrill, Clifton Reynolds, Jerry Attix, and Bill Enochs. Beaver Patrol, Tim Sullivan, Jack Guio, Bruce Brown, and Larry Seifkin.Flying Eagle Patrol, Roytation was provided by Mr. Merrill, al Page and Jerry Hyde. Transpor-Mr. Guio, and Mr. Reynolds, with Mr. Guio and Mr. Reynolds remaining in camp with Ken Robison, scoutmaster.

The state motto of Texas is "Friendship". The name "Texas" stemmed from the Spanish pronunciation of a Caddo Indian word meaning "friends."

NEWCOMERS

Six tiny new residents were welcomed into the Campbell community during the past month according to information from San Jose Hospitals. Females registered a slight numerical majority, there being four, while boy babies, of which there were three, made up in voice volume what they lacked in numbers, according to proud parents.

Campbell newcomers include:

A baby girl for the Michael J. Cascino family of 590 Kenneth Street, was named Marleen Lynn on her recent arrival at O'Connor Hospital.

A baby girl, Michele Alice is the proud new addition to the family of Kenneth D. Harness, of 670 San Tomas road, born Sept. 27 at O'Connor Hospital.

Cynthia Jaramillo is the musical name of the latest addition for the Raymond J. Jaramillos of 1883 Pandora Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby L. Morris of 41 Gilman Street have a newcomer at their house named David Allen.

The Rodriguez family at Rt. No. 1, Box 174 have a new daughter. They called her Irene.

The John Bernard Schmedes of 655 North Central Avenue named their lates Ronald Justin.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mowery of East Campbell Avenue welcomed a new addition with the arrival of daughter, Marsha, October 15 at O'Connor Hospital. She weighed six pounds 14 ounces.

Welcomed to the Lou Murphy family, Oct. 20, was a 6 pound 10 ounce son as yet unnamed.

Two Campbell Women Engage In Jaycette Events

Two Campbell women, Mrs. Ed Irvine of 890 Arnold Way and Mrs. Robert Landreth of 120 Catalpa Lane will participate in two major events scheduled for November by San Jose Jaycettes, auxiliary to the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

On the 2nd a make-up and figue control clinic will be given in Hart's Department Store auditorium. On the 13th the annual Jaycette bazarr will be staged in the San Jose Woman's Clubhouse, 75 S. 11th st.
